

DAVID ROCHE
www.daroart.com

David Roche lives and works in Québec since 1991.

Master degree in Plastic Arts from University of Havana, Cuba

Bachelor of Arts – History, Faculty of Fine Arts of Havana, Cuba

Diploma in Painting, Sculpture and Design, San Alejandro National School of Fine Arts, Habana, Cuba.

Visual Arts and Art History Professor, since 1977.

As an artist, he masters the profound and emotional sense of volume, textures and colours with subtlety and remarkable refinement. Above and beyond the plastic aspects and esthetic research, his art represents physical and spiritual love, sensuality and spontaneity; it also demonstrates the duality of the balance between abstract and reality.

His rich and diversified works of art received prizes, both nationally and internationally. They are found in private and public collections in China, South Korea, Thailand, the Unites States, Canada, Mexico, Spain, and many other European countries.

Professional Member of several Art associations, such as: the International Association of Art (IAA/AIAP), the Canadian Artists' Representation (CARFAC), Copyright Visual Arts/Droit d'Auteurs en Arts Visuels (COVA-DAAV) and the Group for Visual Arts Artists of Québec (RAAV) Canada.